WELL DESERVED.

The Praise that Comes From Thankful Cloverport People.

One Kidney remedy never fails. Cloverport people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Cloverport testimony proves it always reliable.

J. C. Weatherholt, High St., Cloverport, Ky., says: "Two years ago I did not think it possible that I could ever be well again, in fact, I had settled up my affairs. I cannot describe the misery I endured from pains through my back and whenever I stooped, they became so sharp that it really felt as if someone were thrusting a knife into my kidneys. I was often very dizzy, dark spots floated before my eyes and I had to grasp something to keep from falling. My joints became swollen to twice their natural size and I lost weight rapidly until I was a skeleton. The doctors' medicines or the many guaranteed cures that I tried, did not help me and finally it was my good fortune to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills. I immediately procured a box at Fisher's drug store and I was greatly surprised at the results received. Before I had taken the contents of the second box, there was a marked improvement and I continued using them until completely cured. I am now as well as any man in this county and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

KILLED BY DOGS

Twenty-two Fine Angora Goats Meet Death on Oglesby's Farm Near Town Friday

WAS A BIG LOSS TO OWNER

Friday a herd of goats were run down by several vicious dogs on the farm of Mr. Ed. Oglesby. Twenty-two goats were killed and others injured. The loss was exceedingly great for the goats were quite valuable to have on the farm for the purpose of cleaning underbrush. In several states farmers keep a herd of goats to clean their fields and it is found they do a good job at moderate cost. However, the animals have been a big loss to Mr. Oglesby. He thought the goats would fight and protect themselves, but he learned differently Friday.

HARDINSBURG

The Rev. English Delivered His Farewell Sermon To a Large Audience at the County Capital Sunday Night.

MUCH ILLNESS IN THE TOWN

Miss Beulah Rowland, an appointee to the Western State Normal, left for Bowling Green Monday.

Rev. E. B. English preached his farewell sermon to a crowded house Sunday night. No other services were held in town, thus giving to all church goers an opportunity to hear from one respected and loved by all the last sermon after a four years' pastorate in our city. Rev. and Mrs. English do not move to Owensboro until the last of March, though his work begins there the second Sunday.

Dr. McMullin has bought of Roy E. Moorman the brick corner now occupied as a store house by H. J. Roberts. Consideration $800. Dr. McMullin will make some improvements and alterations, but does not yet give out to what use the building will be put. It is one of the most desirable locations in town.

Miss Verbel McMullin left Monday for Henderson after closing her work Friday in the Public School. She is a successful teacher, a hard worker and is thoroughly acquainted with the work of a graded school. Her departure from Hardinsburg is attended by much regret.

After a trial of a week's duration in which the testimony in the J. H. Glasscock suit vs. the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company was all given, Judge Chelf became too ill to remain in court. As he was unable to give instructions to the jury, court was adjourned at noon Friday without anything being effected in the trial. It will be gone over again at the May term.

Charley Durham returned Sunday from a visit of several days to friends in Tell City.

Tom Moore spent Sunday in Louisville.

Mrs. J. E. Wright, of Louisville, is here visiting her father, Judge N. Mc. Mercer.

Miss Maggie Baker, of Centertown, stopped over here Saturday on her way to Louisville and spent the day with Miss Lela McGary.

Mrs. Morris Beard is in Louisville.

Thos. Miller, grader at the warehouse here, finished his work last week, and returned to his home after about sixty days of most satisfactory work.

The colored school closed last week with a creditable entertainment on Saturday night. Both the teachers leave this week for the State Colored School at Frankfort where they will remain several months.

Judge Board and Hon. G. W. Beard, two of our oldest citizens, are unable to be out, being, it is thought, only temporarily indisposed.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

More Politics Than Farm Talk At Elizabethtown Meeting. A Political Wrangle.

FARMERS LEAVE DISGUSTED.

[From Evening Post.] Elizabethtown, Ky., Feb. 26.—At yesterday's session of the Kentucky Farmer's Institute H. M. Beard, of Breckenridge county, was chosen a member of the State Board of Agriculture from the Second Appellate district to succeed W. R. Moorman. The election of Mr. Beard, however, was not accomplished without a long wrangle, the Democrats contending that the delegates to the Second District Convention, which met earlier in the day, were not legally elected and the Republicans claiming the contrary.

There was also some trouble in the Seventh Appellate District Convention, where Frank Blackburn, Republican, of Powell county, was elected to succeed J. J. C. Mayo.

These fights, which started in the district conventions, were carried to the floor of the big meeting, and when Lucien Beckner presented the report of the Committee on Credentials, he was immediately challenged by Secretary Newman, of the State Fair Board, who claimed that none of the delegates to the institute of delegates had been properly elected. A long squabble followed and Roy Wilhoit, C. M. Barnett and Commissioner Rankin attacked the stand of former Senator Newman.

The charge was then made that letters had been sent out from the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture, urging the attendance of delegates to vote against Moorman, but the Commissioner replied that if such a thing had been done he knew nothing about it.

After long debate, however, the report of the Committee on Credentials was adopted, the Democrats refusing to vote.

Last night the members of the State Board of Agriculture met and re-elected J. W. Newman, Secretary of the State Fair by acclamation.

The following officers were elected by the Institute: C. M. Barnett, vice-president, and P. M. Shy, secretary.

Later, at the night session, addresses on important topics were made by Cicero Barnett, Ben L. Bruner and Roy Wilhoit, secretary of the Railroad Commission.

Many of the farmers left during the political squabble yesterday, declaring they were disgusted with the action of some of the delegates, and saying that the affairs of the farmers had not received nearly so much attention as the matter of politics. The majority of them blame the Democrats for attempting to introduce the political matters in the meeting.

IN MEMORIAM.

In last week's issue of the News, reference was made to the funeral service of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkerson, in this city, detailed facts not being then obtainable. Elizabeth Fisher Wilkerson, widow of the late Judge John S. Wilkerson and youngest daughter of John and Agnes Fisher, was born July 4th., 1827 at the old Fisher homestead near this city, and fell asleep in Jesus, Friday, February 12th., 1909, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. David Standliff, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Born on an anniversary of our national independence day, and passing away on the 100th. anniversary of the birth of the immortal Lincoln, her life thus was strictly identified with the patriotism of the nation.

About seventy-five years of her life was spent in Cloverport. In her young womanhood two years was spent in Louisville, while the last five years of her splendid life were spent in Brooklyn, surrounded by all her children, save one. Sixty-five years ago Mrs. Wilkerson united with the Cloverport Baptist church, where her membership remained until her death.

a kind neighbor and a devotedly, loving mother, she lived to see all of her children useful and prosperous citizens and then peacefully lay down her armour and entered into sweet rest, fully resigned to the will of the great "Father," her last admonition to her children being to "love one another."

Funeral services were held at her daughter's home in Brooklyn Sunday, Feb. 14th., conducted by the Rev. Walter S. Rounds, of the Third Christian church, who spoke feelingly of the beautiful motherhood of the deceased, as well as of her confident hope in the christian life. Two beautiful duets were sweetly rendered by Mrs. Weeks and Mr. Bowes of St. Marks Methodist Episcopal church, after which the remains, accompanied by two sons and two daughters, were taken over the Pennsylvania R. R. to Cloverport, via Louisville, where they were met by another son, daughter and grand-daughter.

In last week's issue of the News, full mention was made of the beautiful and touching services in the Cloverport Baptist church and at the grave, conducted by the Rev. Jas. Lewis and the church choir.

The body was laid to rest beside that of her late husband, in the Cloverport Cemetery.

Don't Be Misled.

The retail druggists of this country, as a class, are noted for their high standard of intelligence and honorable dealing, but it is a well known fact that occasionally you will find one who will try to sell you something else when you call for a remedy of established reputation. He forgets that your health is more important than his pocketbook.

For example, when you ask for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, don't let any druggist, drug clerk or store-keeper persuade you into buying something else in its place. Every time he succeeds in selling you a worthless substitute he makes more profit, but you are humbugged at the expense of your health.

For many years we have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. From the very beginning, the proprietors had so much confidence in it that they invited every one to send for a free sample bottle so that people could judge of its great curative value in even the most distressing cases of kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

On another page of this paper you will find a few of the letters, prompted by feelings of heartfelt gratitude, that are constantly coming to Dr. Kilmer & Company. No one can doubt such sincere and honest testimony.

Swamp-Root is prepared only by Dr. Kilmer & Co., Laboratories, Binghamton, N. Y.—Don't experiment.—If you need a medicine you should have the best.
